It's four in the morning and once more the dawning
Just woke up the wanting in me
Wishing I'd never met him knowing if I'd forget him
How much better off he would be.

The longer I hold on the longer this goes on
The harder that it's gonna be
But it's four in the morning and once more the dawning
Just woke up the wanting in me.

I never deserved him, God knows when I hurt him
That's the last thing that I want to do
He tries but she can't tell how he feels
But I know too well what he's going through.

If I love him so much I don't know why
I can't do the right thing and just let him be
But it's four in the morning and once more the dawning
Just woke up the wanting in me.

--- Instrumental ---

Last night I told him this time it's all over
Making ten times I told him goodbye
Last night we broke up this morning I woke up
For the tenth time I'm changing my mind.

I saw more love in his eyes when I left him
Than most foolish girl will ever see
And it's four in the morning and once more the dawning
Just woke up the wanting in me.

It's four in the morning and once more the dawning
Just woke up the wanting in me
Wishing I'd never met him knowing if I'd forget him
How much better off he would be...
