At last I have caught up with you and you're a sight to see
Could this really be my outlaw lover JJ Sneed
Could a woman with a painted face and pretty sweet disguise
Turn your heart against me with her evil cunning eyes
Her evil cunning eyes.

JJ it's been you and me right from the very start
And every job we ever pulled I'd always done my part
We'd really stick together until the bitter end
It was my understanding we were whole lots more than friends.
A whole lot more than friends.

It was me that kept you warm when nights were dark and cold
But I guess I didn't look like much in these old ragged clothes
But you said it didn't matter cause you love me that a way
You said that no one else could ever steal your heart away
Steal your heart away.

Do you recall the Union Bank we robbed in Franklin Town
As we made our getaway the sheriff gunned you down
And I doctored up your bullet wounds and nursed you while you're sick
But now you have betrayed me is that the thanks I get
Is that the thanks I get.

Oh yeah, JJ I'm thinking now of how we'd all begun
Of all the times we've robbed and killed with our trust wordy gun
Why we stood off a fuss it was JJ just you and I
Now you have betrayed me and for that you're gonna die
For that you're gonna die.

The good old days are over as we stand here in the rain

JJ I'm gonna shoot you now I hope you'll feel no pain

I hear whoopees of the horses and pieces on my trail

I guess I'll join you soon but for now JJ farewell for now JJ

farewell

Now JJ farewell...
