"Looking Over Our Shoulder"

We have too many secrets you and me
'Cause you belong to her and I'm not free
Our friendship turned into a love affair
And our families just don't know the dates we shared.

We're looking over our shoulder for her or him
We're searching for a place where lights are low and dim
We're looking over our shoulder afraid we might be seen
By him or her how could we be so mean.

--- Instrumental ---

We didn't mean for it to go this part
Each day would be the last but here we are
We've got to stop we'll drag our other down
Or always in the darkness we'll be found.

We're looking over our shoulder for her or him
We're searching for a place where lights are low and dim
We're looking over our shoulder afraid we might be seen
By him or her how could we be so mean.

By him or her how could we be so mean...
