Repenting, yes, I'm repenting
Those few careless hours that never should have been
I'm begging you to let me take command.

Repenting, yes, I'm repenting
I promise to never do you wrong again.

On my knees I'm asking your forgiveness
Please heed a humble heart laid at your feet
Too late I know a love like yours is different
It's all I need to make my life complete.

Repenting, yes, I'm repenting
I'll never make the same mistakes again.

--- Instrumental ---

On my knees I'm asking your forgiveness
Please heed a humble heart laid at your feet
Too late I know a love like yours is different
It's all I need to make my life complete...
