If you're tired of the life that you're living
Then why don't you change it now
For no one knows what tomorrow holds
There's no greater time than now.

There's no greater time than now
There's no greater time than now
Don't let this chance pass for it could be your last
There's no greater time than now.

--- Instrumental ---

So come while the choir is singing
Oh come while time still allows
Oh come and be safe before you go away
There's no greater time than now.

There's no greater time than now
There's no greater time than now
Don't let this chance pass for it could be your last
There's no greater time than now...
