We missed you and we're glad you'll come home
The hours were never so lonely my eyes were never so strange
From watching and waiting and crying for you
And hoping you'd come back again.

Me and my heart and my lips and my arms
We missed you each day you were gone
We missed you and we're glad you'll come home.

--- Instrumental ---

A hope against hope you still love me
There were so many mem'ries I care
And though you had gone many miles from my side
My love followed you every step.

Me and my heart and my lips and my arms
We missed you each day you were gone
We missed you and we're glad you'll come home...
