"Whose Shoulder Will You Cry On"

Once you were my life and breath
And you rode your free horse to death
Oh, you trifled around too much then you lost your loving touch
Now whose shoulder will you cry on?

You didn't love me all alone
'Cause you can't love and do me wrong
I don't trust you no more so go knock on another's door
And whose shoulder will you cry on?

--- Instrumental ---

Just let those hot tears burn your eyes
They're just payments on the lies
That made a wreck of me from that chain I've been set free
Now whose shoulder will you cry on?

You didn't love me all alone
'Cause you can't love and do me wrong
I don't trust you no more so go knock on another's door
And whose shoulder will you cry on?...
