You can't conceal a heart that's broken
No matter what you say or do
I still recall words that were spoken
The night you said that we were through.

My darling, I still want you near me
You know I've loved you from the start
You may conceal the teardrops falling
But you can't conceal a broken heart.

--- Instrumental ---

You can't conceal a heart that's broken
Although you try to hide your gloom
I know for me you feel no longing
For in your heart there is no room.

The long, long nights I sit alone dear
I'm lonesome since we've been apart
I try to smile the best I can dear
But you can't conceal a broken heart...
