See how every flower
Brings joy and beauty to life
Smooths out the wrinkles of life
See how every bird in the sky
Strives for perfection
Shows us the way to go
Let's try it together

Give the children space to grow
Show them the beauty of life
Teach them the message of hope
Plant in every heart of men
The seeds of love and peace
So that tomorrow
We may reap the fruits of life
That speak to peace and love
Love

Let's join the voices to sing to life
And send our love to all mankind
Knowing one day we will have one
Peaceful and happy world
Give the children space to grow
Show them the beauty of life
Teach them the message of hope
Plant in every heart of men
The seeds of love and peace
So that tomorrow
We may reap the fruits of life
That speak to peace and love
Love

Let's join the voices to sing to life
And send our love to all mankind
Knowing one day we will have one
Peaceful and happy world

Let's join the voices to sing to life
And send our love to all mankind
Knowing one day we will have one
Peaceful and happy world
