each and every time I call each and every time I fall you will get me through it all even if IÂ'm against the wall now I was like LOL

you hit me w/ a call but it wasn't on a cell I went and got ya voice mail right at the times when all the choice failed I was heading right towards hell laughing like ROFL
I couldn't even find self but you hit me on back like TTYL and yet I still keep stressing this you still keep sending ya text messages and then I read all ya sentences 66 books broke down in 2 testaments and then I started to make sense of this understood now what the lesson is you got me standing on the precipice will I call you w/ the hopes that ya getting this saying so you still calling me but I hit you on back like BRB you said believe on me and I couldn't miss that like some neon green it was all beyond me yet IÂ'm still playing games like it's 3 on 3 you said lean on me just call out my name like OMG now before I see death ya better write back soon like WBS I couldn't see what's next so stressed you was like did you read the text when it comes down to sin we just get owned like PWN but since I got a new best friend its BFF all the way to the end so I say..
