it was late that night about a quarter past ten Iâ€™m at my Grandmas house just me and my cousin we sitting around just bored and doing nothing so we snuck out and crept out to have a little fun then Iâ€™m on my skateboard heâ€™s on his bike now heâ€™s towing me down the street up in the middle of the night now I guess we both knew just what we did it wasnâ€™t
right
see we really didnâ€™t care we went a mile and took a
and at this time thereâ€™s no Jesus in my life I used to cuss used to drink I was nuts I used to fight then we met up with some kids when we stopped up at the light then we went up to the store stole some cokes and a sprite
we on the highway and a copâ€™s driving by when he slammed up on his brakes thatâ€™s the time now when I turned around to escape through a parking lot to hide see little did I know that was the night I couldâ€™ve died

(one single night one single night night
see I almost got shot by the cops one single night do you know where youâ€™re gonna go when ya die (one single night one single night night
do you know where youâ€™re gonna go when its time by this time see Iâ€™m almost to the clearing the cop said to stop but I really couldnâ€™t hear him all I did was run and I didnâ€™t even know I was near him he barely saw me come thatâ€™s the reason that I scared him he had pulled out his gun then fired as I was appearing it hit me in the chest right then I started feeling my body going numb and I could feel myself bleeding now Iâ€™m covered in my blood right now this is all im hearing

is my cousin standing over me he's crying and he's screaming
the cops holding me plus he's trying to get me breathing but it's getting cold to me and I could feel myself weaken
it getting hard to breathe I can't even hear him speaking now my body's getting weak and I can't see them will I go to hell cuz God I didn't need Him man im only 12 one more chance is what im needing is this the end now for me will I die this evening like heres the real facts so listen as I drop em i got away that night cuz see another kid they caught

him
the cop pulled his gun but nah he never shot him I used to wonder what if they never would've got him I used to think about that night had I been in the wrong place at the very wrong time what if that cop would've let that bullet fly what if I would've died up at that point up in my life (what would've happened) see I wasn't living right the life I was living I wasn't giving it to Christ as I'm looking back right now in hindsight it wasn't just good luck I didn't have no nine lives (it was something more) I got a chance now to find God could save me and give me peace up in my mind and then he just changed me when he opened up my eyes yet I still think back to where I'd be time to time cause I...
