I would never forget you (the place that you brought me from)

I will never forget you (and everything you done)

I won't forget the very place that I come from growing up in Tampa when I was real young you see it's kind of rough when your living in the slum the neighborhood was kind of tough but it was still fun we'd come home stuff missing on a few nights got our place robbed that's all I knew right my dad's job only earning him a few dimes the power got turned off quite a few times but I don't claim that the ghetto was the hardest some of the nicest people was there irregardless the old Cuban guy my dad always talked with gave me a dollar when I walked him to the market I don't regret anyone of my hardships I became free cause what your love did and looking back and I can see how far I come since it's all cause of you and what you just did

I remember going to school getting reduced lunch rocking hand me downs riding the school bus and every weekend my dad would come to pick me up we was on the bridge one time and got stuck I heard a loud noise the engine blown up we gotta push the car call a tow truck man it's kind of hard but you know what I come so far only cause of your love at 18 I moved out and tried to grow up just hoping I could make it through the next month my job's paying me like less than six bucks but time and time again I saw you show up a family took me in man they showed love I got a room from them slept on the sofa and everything they did it meant so much but as I reminisce my thanks go up saying..

I still remember that first little apartment had to put the tv on a box right on the carpet that first year married it was the hardest crazy neighbors always fighting getting into arguments we had each other though we didn't need much even when we scraped up like 33 bucks to get our xmas tree that's like 3 foot it's kind of sad to see but we was like so what I'm working at the church plus I'm trying to rhyme my wife's car keeps breaking down all the time we've come so far since then now I find 10 years later I got a house and I can call it mine you've been so good just to her and I anything we ever needed you still provide that's what I've seen like each and every time I can't forget where you've brought now me in my life c'mon
