Now this morning I watched you wake up so quickly
But you were in such a hurry that you walked right past me
I stood there waiting anticipating your company Hoping you would spend time with me but you've been busy lately
In fact I wonder if you've forgotten all about me Cause back in the day there wasn't a single thing you'd do without me
You couldn't wait to tell me how your day went, but all I get is silence it's the only statement I was waiting for you last night but you came and went, you always leave me hanging Just time and time again, I miss you more than your mind can comprehend See I'm more than a savior I want to be the closest friend
But you show me when you act this way you don't know me
And saying that you love me but leave me all alone again, so here I am Left out in the cold again, just thought I'd let you know that I'm missing you again

Chorus

Ohhhh... oh, oh

I miss you

I miss you

Oh I miss you

See I ain't saying that you don't be loving me But I am saying that you put everyone else in front of
me
And when you're in trouble that's the only time you come to me
And when things crumble that's the only time you run to me
A forgotten memory is just what I've come to be After all I did you act like you don't even remember
me
You call on me when it's convenient now I've come to see

There's so much that I'd really just love to be I'll take care of it all if you put your trust in me
The big and the small see I want you to discuss with me
So the times when I call now you'll just know it's me
And even if ya fall now I'll put you back upon your feet
But all in all I'm just waiting here patiently Hoping that tomorrow when you wake up now from your sleep
That it's priority for you to spend your time with me Cause right now I miss you so much don't you see?

Chorus

Don't you know how much I'm loving you?
But you can't see right now how much I'm missing you
