Chorus:

Rise up lift ya eyes up get up stand up throw ya hands up and..

Verse 1: (KJ-52)

sick of all the lies sick of the compromise sick of the way we live our lives and run and hide sick of the times we turn our head close our eyes can you hear the cries when you gonna rise? stand up! my people in the place where you at?
stand up! God's people who aint ashamed where you at?
stand up! if you say you know his name where you at?
stand up! cause you gotta proclaim what you have rise up! no more hiding no time for crying you can't be the light of the world when you aint shining I'm straight rhyming so you'll be straight recognizing you aint trying you just sitting there straight whining while the whole world around you just straight dying so keep in mind Jesus Lion of Zion gave his life so you and I wouldn't be frying so quit hiding it's time for you to start rising

Chorus:

Rise up lift your eyes up get up stand up throw your hands up and

Verse 2: (Rob)

To all my real live people in the spot now rise up let me see what you got now we blowing holes in ya speakers when we rock now we keep it hot now every time we rock towns that's how we got down every time we drop sounds so you know you better listen when I talk now cause we never stop now or let ya guard down cause if you got the answer why keep it locked down?
(Trevor)
How many people want to see this rock now go bump it in your trunk rolling with the top down hold on cause I'm letting the missile drop now no hostages cause we're taking your whole block down yo we hot but not tropic in the mall might catch me in a Hot Topic we can talk if somebody wanna knock it cause we coming at dangerous speeds ya can't stop it
