You took me out so far
That I can't swim to shore
I've been holding on
But you're not anymore

Our love would always lead us home
Constant as the Northern Star
But here's a storm we won't get through
'Cause it's not in your heart

I can feel you drifting
Slowly out of reach
Out there in the distance
There's something else you need

If I could be what's missing
That's all I'd wanna be
I can feel you drifting

In the silence that's become
The company we keep
I've realized how far we are
From what we used to be

A part of you has gone somewhere
I can't seem to touch
I could stay and take what's left
But baby, that's not us

I can feel you drifting
Slowly out of reach
Out there in the distance
There's something else you need

If I could be what's missing
That's all I'd wanna be
I can feel you drifting

If I could be what's missing
That's all I'd wanna be
I can feel you drifting
You're out of reach
