This conversation's going nowhere fast
Like a train on a dead end track
There's nowhere left to go

Well, I don't really want to drag this out
If you're going to say it, say it now
No need to take it slow

We both know it's over
I don't need a shoulder
Oh, baby, let's just

Say goodbye and leave it at that
Instead of saying things we can't take back
The more we talk
The harder it gets to really let go

You couldn't fix it even if you tried
So go on and let me cry
You said you're leaving
Leave it at that

Don't even try to let me down easy
It's pretty clear that you don't need me
Like you did before

What's so hard about the word goodbye
When I already see it in your eyes
So what are you waiting for

Only time can mend this
Why don't we just end it
Oh, baby, let's just

Say goodbye and leave it at that
Instead of saying things we can't take back
The more we talk
The harder it gets to really let go

You couldn't fix it even if you tried
So go on and let me cry
You said you're leaving

Just leave it at that

Let's just say goodbye and leave it at that
Instead of saying things we can't take back
The more we talk
The harder it gets to really let go

You couldn't fix it even if you tried
So go on and let me cry
You said you're leaving
You said you're leaving
Leave it at that
