I watch in adoration
Every little thing you do
The way your smile lights up the room
That easy way you move

And then you take my hand in yours
And then you pull me near
And in that crystal moment
My life is so clear

I wanna feel everything you feel
I wanna touch everything you touch
I wanna be everywhere you are
I wanna love everything you love

I wanna breathe every breath you take
Be a part of every move you make
Closer to your heart than anybody's been
Under your skin

I'm without hesitation
I give myself to you
Wrapped up in this emotion
So deep and so true

I wanna feel everything you feel
I wanna touch everything you touch
I wanna be everywhere you are
I wanna love everything you love

I wanna breathe every breath you take
Be a part of every move you make
Closer to your heart than anybody's been
Under your skin, under your skin

I wanna feel everything you feel
I wanna touch everything you touch
I wanna be everywhere you are
I wanna love everything you love

I wanna breathe every breath you take
Be a part of every move you make

Closer to your heart than anybody's been
Under your skin

Closer than anybody's been
Under your skin, under your skin
Under your skin
