

Klaxons "Echoes"

Visit "Echoes" on MotoLyrics.com

Send out a sound for the wood between the worlds Gently repeat as the boundaries start to swirl Keep to the call that is twice now liminal It's not the same where the trails lead to the outer regions

Echoes from the other world turn horizons into endless ever present

Echoes / Many other worlds true horizon start to turn Numberless names with the force of the ninth wave Keep to the call that's repeated in the outer regions

Echoes from the other world turn the horizon into endless ever present

Echoes / Many other worlds true horizon makes the endless ever

Present echoes into other worlds true horizons into the endless ever

Present echoes / Many other-worlds true horizon takes a turn

Echoes reflect and change they serenade
