[Boy]
Looking out into the land
Knees in the sand
She's looking for a home
or a place to call her own

[Girl]
My face filled with tears
and my heart sore from fears
I'm trying to be strong enough [both]
but things are so tough

CHORUS

[boy]
who could she count on [girl]
I don't even know
[boy]
who could she trust?
[girl]
trust with my heart
[boy]
try as she must to keep holding on

[boy]
the sunsets tonight, and out when the light
she cries herself to sleep at night
hoping things will be alright

[girl]
I'm looking for a friend
one that heaven would send [both]
but everyday's the same for the girl with no name

CHORUS

[boy]
who could she count on

[girl]
I don't even know
[boy]
who could she trust?
[girl]
trust with my heart
[boy]
try as she must to keep holding on

BRIDGE

[boy]
she locks her heart up with a lock and key
[girl]
I put up a wall to protect what's left of me

FINAL CHORUS

[girl]
who can I count on?
[boy]
you can count on me [girl]
who can I trust?
[boy]
I wont break your heart
[girl]
try as I must to keep holding on [boy]
try as she must to keep holding on try as she must to keep holding on keep holding on keep holding on
