I've seen people live, I've seen them dying
I've seen people in love, I saw you trying I've seen the glory train, I've seen the spirits scream
Like burning acid rain, yeah, you see I feel the pain too

I saw the world was green once, I saw the people riot on I've seen the good ones die and I know my eyes don't lie

I saw you turn and walk away, I thought I heard you say
Someday we must agree and I agree

And I give to you what she gives to me
A little consideration and a little love
And she wants from us what she gives for free
A little consideration

I've seen true lovers fight, I've been a liar
I've seen the children pray to someone higher I've seen the TV screen, I felt the world close in From what it said to me and I know you've seen the pain too

I saw the water clean once, I climbed the mountain to the top

I saw the eagle fly and I know that time goes by
I came here yesterday and now it's gone away
Someday we must agree and I agree

And I give to you what she gives to me
A little consideration and a little love
And she wants from us what she gives for free
A little consideration

The girl is crying
Oh, yes, the girl is crying
Save the world

And I give to you what she gives to me
A little consideration and a little love
And she wants from us what she gives for free
A little consideration

And I give to you what she gives to me
A little consideration and a little love
And she wants from us what she gives for free
A little consideration

See the girl is crying
Oh, yes, the girl is crying
Save the world, save the world

Save the world, save the world, save
Save the world, save the world
Save the world
