Buildings fall
People crawl
Nailed against another wall
Light or dark
Break and start
Idiot could play the part

There's nothing like giving the game away
All the people are feeling the same today
Take a hammer and break a bone for me
There's nothing like giving the game away
There's nothing like giving the game away
All the people are feeling the same today
Take a hammer and break a bone for me
There's nothing like giving the game away

Make it mine
Pain and crime
Fading light
Other signs
Take it back
Crowbars crack
Break it down
Remain intact

There's nothing like giving the game away
All the people are feeling the same today
Take a hammer and break a bone for me
There's nothing like giving the game away
There's nothing like giving the game away
All the people are feeling the same today
Take a hammer and break a bone for me
There's nothing like giving the game away

(i couldnt make the last part out =(sorry)
