Under a stone, skin and bone
The children of fear are not alone
Rivers of tears, flesh and blood
An eye for an eye, that's all we've got

Time will be ending, life's a crusade
For a consciousness rising, out of desperate state

We've got the power, we've got the power
We've got the power, we've got the power

Power and truth, desire and trust
Like the wind and the rain, ashes and dust
Into light and the future, education is work
Into violent peace, that will conquer the world

We've got the power, we've got the power
We've got the power, we've got the power

We've got the power, excessive force
Industrial soundtrack to the holy wars
We've got the power, excessive force
Industrial soundtrack to the holy wars
We've got the power, excessive force
Industrial soundtrack to the holy wars

Under a stone, skin and bone
The children of fear are not alone
Rivers of tears, flesh and blood
An eye for an eye, that's all we've got

We've got the power, excessive force
Industrial soundtrack to the holy wars
