That's fine with me
Don't think I care
Do what you want
As you see fit

That's quite alright
It's all okay
Just be yourself
It's fine with me

For a second you might Wonder if it's real

If that's alright
Just say okay
If that felt good
Let's go again

For a moment you might
Question what you see
For a second your whole
World will disappear

This is mind control
And you know it
This will shut you up
And you know it

What's wrong with you?
R.U.OK?
Are you still here?
Don't slip away

Just breathe in deep
And stay awake
Don't close your eyes
Don't close your eyes

For a moment you might
Question what you see
For a second your whole
World will disappear

This is mind control
And you know it
This will shut you up
And you know it

Mind control

This is mind control
(Mind control)
This is mind control
(Mind control)
This is mind control

It's all you get
It's all you need
