Listen now
I am afraid of everything when you told me I was special it was the happiest moment for a long long time

Listen now
I keep forgetting your name when you laid down on the kitchen floor
it was the happiest moment for a long long time

We seek new seed now
some revolutioary
and you will never get a hold we seek and we will find reason to stay alive
the price has never been this low

Listen now
I was afraid of everything then I straightened my head up
it was the happiest moment for a long long time

the price has never been this low
