Stranger, on the face of it
Brother in the heart of a nation that prays for you, loves you, calls you by name
Struck out, like some criminal
Cut down, like an animal
Suddenly everything I know just aint the same

We ask for solution (did anyone hear us)
For your retributions (did anyone care)
So while this world marches on, with a memory gone,
my heart will remember

You are my fallen soldier (ooh yeah)
One of a many multiers
I would have loved to know ya
Still your my fallen soldier
Oh you are my fallen soldier (yes you are)
One of a many multiers (oohhhh)
I would have loved to know ya (i would have loved to know you)
You are my fallen soldier (you are)
You are my fallen soldier (you you are)
One of a many multiers (of a many)
I would have loved to know ya (I would have loved to
know you)
Your my fallen soldier (ohh)
You are my fallen soldier (your my fallen)
One of a many multiers (One of a many)
I would have loved to know ya (shoulda known you child)
Still your my fallen soldier (oh yes you are)

Ohhh
Oh yeah yes
Would've loved to known ya
My fallen boy.
