You stare me down
Like I exist
As a constant reminder
To the fact that you fucked up

I walk alone
Most of the time
By design or
By fate I can't decide

The stars so bright
Say smash your heart tonight

Whoa

You talk so bitter
Like I hurt you
So much worse
Than that emptiness inside

I held your hand
For so long
That you just can't Move along

The stars so bright
Say smash your heart tonight

Whoa
