"Silver Wings"

Visit "Silver Wings" on MotoLyrics.com

Silver wings shining in the sunlight
Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight
They're taking you away, leaving me lonely
Silver wings, slowly fading out of sight

"Don't leave me," I cried
"Don't take no airplane ride"
But you locked me out of your mind
Left me standing here behind

Silver wings shining in the sunlight
Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight
They're taking you away, leaving me lonely
Silver wings, slowly fading out of sight

Slowly fading out of sight
(Silver wings)
Slowly fading out of sight

Slowly fading out of sight
(Silver wings)
Slowly fading out of sight

Slowly fading out of sight
(Silver wings)
Slowly fading out of sight
