Don't know what happened
But somebody lost their mind tonight
Not sure what happened
But I don't think I got home tonight
There's blood on my shirt
The clap of thunder and
I see my life go flashing by
The smell of sulfur and
I weep as I embrace the sky
And somebody screamed
(Where were you tonight?)
My chest is burning
I think someone set my soul alight
Don't know what happened
But I don't think I got home tonight
I wonder why
I wonder why
Ahhhh, there's madness here today
Ahhhh, I think I'll go away
Where is my wife?
Where is my wife?
I'm draining away
I'm draining away
(Draining away)
Here today
