I am lost, I don't understand.
I'm a kid from a two faced land.
I don't believe I can choose,
Neither side prevents me to lose.

Out on my own, I have my own opinions.
Out on my own, I control my own life.
Out on my own, I use my own voice.
Out on my own, I'm the only one on my side.

The crowd forgets that the cause is lost.

I won't stand down no matter the cost,
I won't give up, I won't let go,
I'll stand my ground, out on my own.

Out on my own, I have my own opinions.
Out on my own, I control my own life.
Out on my own, I use my own voice.
Out on my own, I'm the only one on my side.
