Well, come to nightmare world tonight.
Shout a warning come on tonight.
Shout a warning come on tonight. yeah

I walk all alone in the darkness I've grown tired of these everyday recurrences (grown tired)
Oh oh please, yeah.
The ideals that I've lost
I should be able to take them back Tonight is my last caution
There's no going back.

Right now come on tonight
If you go now then you will probably make it, break out alright
Believe me, come on tonight (come on tonight) as long as I'm with you it's alright
Until the end, come on tonight, oh

If you just sit idly by
There is no more use for you here, disappear
I say goodbye (I say goodbye) I say goodbye. Yeah

If you are feeling it Then stare straight forward
And I will show you how to solve This mystery filled story.

Start moving, come on tonight
Who am I being tested by? truth or lie
I can break it, come on tonight (come on tonight)
Starting from there is alright.

Yo come on lady, let me be god in this world, how do you check
Tell me kiss me and beauty you shake.
I have been telling you this that the future is in my hand.
Oh peace world forget it's getting dark.
Keep dance with my girl. Here's another prince.

It's real time get away get away.

Even disheartened courage can surely be realized
If we're together we can overcome it and go further into the distance
Baby come on tonight

Can everybody hear me? (I will overcome my pain) Even if it's not forever, I'll go my own way (when you open the door)
The new day that I call a dream (the world will open it's eyes)
It should come to us, I pray, the light will bring resurrection.

Eternally, I'll save you baby, with this love, oh believe me

Right now come on tonight
If you go now then you can make it, come on break out
alright
Believe me, come on tonight (believe tonight) as long as I'm with you it's alright
Until the end, come on tonight, oh

Start moving, come on tonight
Who am I being tested by? truth or lie
I can break it, come on tonight (come on tonight)
Starting from there is alright.

Right now, come one tonight
