A little bit further, a little bit further away

Wipe those tears from your eyes
No use in holding on to the past
The love has gone now
The time has come to say goodbye

And even though it hurts so bad, you must set free the love that you once had Had, baby, baby
There's no point in fighting for a love you can have no more
If you do it, you got a high price to pay You're just pushin' any love that's left a little bit further
away You're pushing your love a little bit further (A little bit further), a little bit further away

Now there's no reason or why, why love should say hello and then goodbye
Just up and leave you in the middle of the night

If you accept the reasons why, you know that true love won't completely die Ooh baby, there's no point in fighting for a love you can have no more
If you do it, you got a high price to pay (Listen, baby)
You're just pushin' any love that's left a little bit further
You're pushing your love a little bit further, a little bit
further away
You're pushing your love, a little bit further (A little bit
further), a little bit further away
There's no point in fighting for a love you can have no
If you do it, you got a high price to pay (Listen, baby)
You're just pushin' any love that's left a little bit further
You're pushing your love a little bit further, a little bit
further away
You're pushing your love a little bit further, a little bit
further away

There's no point in fighting for a love you can have no
If you do it, you got a high price to pay (Listen, baby)
You're just pushin'...
