I was lost but now I'm found,
Got my feet back on the ground,
Didn't know if it was day or night,
What was wrong or what was right,
I see the future in your eyes,
No longer blinded by your lies,
You said you loved me and always would,
I wanted you,
Did all I could.

You said you want me,
You said you need me,
But now I've got to go.

Everybody is livin alone,
Communication on the telephone (the telephone),

You think you're someone,
Real hot stuff (real hot),
You're really nothing,
But it's good enough (you're good enough).

You said you want me (yeah you're good enough),
You said you need me (Oh good enough),
But now I've got to go.

The money's gone,
Like yesterday,
There's one thing left,
I've got to say.

You said you want me,
You said you need me,
But now I've got to go.
