How we love To measure things How we see Ourselves supreme How we live Pathetic lives And make sure Our offspring thrives

When facts are faced For the human race You will see There is nothing we can change

Life is fragile Life is fragile Life is fragile Life is fragile

I do think That if the planet was alive Not just lived on But with a pulse inside She wouldn't care Or even know How we all got to be so fucking low

When facts are faced For the human race You will see There is nothing we can change, no

Life...
