This is the white man's saviour
Technology our vain
We have the world to prey on
And we keep it that way
Although you've learned to swallow
You'd rather spit
You've learned my world is hollow
And full of shit

I've gagged the western world
Enslaved all the rest
I make the rules in here
The whole world to the test
I steal your riches
I rake your land
Cause all that is of weapons
Are in my command

Snake eyes, white lies
The Painstaking, the painstaking truth
I've no mans shame
This world, this world I'll tame

This white hypocrisy
The whole world's enemy

This is the white man's saviour
Technology our vain
We have the world to prey on
And we keep it that way
Although you've learned to swallow
You'd rather spit
You've learned my world is hollow
And full of shit

Snake eyes, white lies
The Painstaking, the painstaking truth
I've no mans shame
This world, this world I'll tame

I've gagged the western world
Enslaved all the rest

I make the rules in here
The whole world to the test

This white hypocrisy
The whole world's enemy
