I will not fake this
Assembled to fit your liking
It's now I fall
But you'll be the one to crumble
All eyes are set on me
Watching every move I make
As I am reaching
For instant clarity
I've seen a life
Unrecognized from others
Till death do I part from
My heart
I've seen a life (I've seen a life)
Unrecognized from others
Till death do I part from
Your scars

I've learned to live
Off better things than my own
All I can give
In return to my home
I've never felt so lonely
You've never seemed so far away
I've laid to rest
Ashes from another day

It's time to break this
Apart from what we call our home
I'll make a stand
And you'll be the one to crumble
Underneath you're insecurity
It's time I saw
Just who the fuck you are
I've seen a life
Unrecognized from others

Till death do I part from
My heart
I've seen a life (I've seen a life)
Unrecognized from others
Till death do I part
From you

Suffer under me
The tides are rising for me
My pulse is in my throat
But do I fear
What becomes of me
The blood I she'd is nothing more
Than mere fiction for
What you'll bleed

I've learned to live
All I can give
In return to my home
I've never felt so lonely
You've never seemed so far away
I've laid to rest
Ashes from another day

Ashes to ashes
Scatter me
Ashes to ashes
Doubting me
Scars!

I've learned to live
All I can give
In return to my home
I've never felt so lonely
You've never seemed so far away
I've laid to rest
Ashes from another day
