

Konspiracy "Diary"

Revealed your secrets
Unveiled your filth
The pages contain
The hate you've built
And you are trapped now
In your pool of lies
The blood and flesh remains
For what your write

Surrender
Catalystic ways
Undying
Now but soon you'll reach your days
I've felt this
Something stronger than before
The pressure
Just won't raise anymore

And in this diary I've seen the truth and how you've felt
for me
This is far from over now that once again it's hard to breathe
And in this diary I've seen the truth and how you've felt
for me
This is far from over now

I'll find your weakness
Because you found mine
I'm sick of heartache
From time to time
And now I
Truly know
Just how you cared

For me

Surrender
Catalystic ways
Undying
Now but soon you'll reach your days
I've felt this
Something stronger than before

The pressure
Just won't raise anymore

And in this diary I've seen the truth and how you've felt
for me
This is far from over now that once again it's hard to
breathe
And in this diary I've seen the truth and how you've felt
for me
This is far from over now

You Will Die
Blind

And in this diary I've seen the truth and how you've felt
for me
breathe
for me

You
Will Die
Blind
