Bleed

This harboring hate condemns me
To which it bleeds
Another soul in this game we play
Lifeless it feeds
Led astray since the end of time
My wound beckons thee
And if the wound be still and unhealing
My lips bleed as I speak

Now I know
It was written in my soul
A curse of life of love
Death be bound by strings
Holding onto me
This life no more
What am I speaking these words for

We all know
What happens from here
But do we follow
It's path in entirety
Straining for forgiveness
A path we hope is clear
The wolves they follow me
What I feel resides in breeds
Push, Pull, Open
Your life's an open book
I see the end is near
But can I face my fears
You never loved me
Why do you even try and fake

So as I bleed dry
And you continue to live your life
As though you're not

The effect of my heart and knife
Bloodshed recoiled
And she mustn't speak a word
I live to burn

My shallow whispers horde

Now I know
It was written in my soul
A curse of life of love
Death be bound by strings
Holding onto me
This life no more
What am I speaking these words for

We all know
What happens from here
But do we follow
It's path in entirety
But can I face my fears

I've learned
To give
To the selfish ways of your tyranny
My thine eyes bleed
To give
Concern
You left me with a soul to mend
I hope you burn in hell
