Ever seen this world from out there
In the endless universe
We might look small
But we're the very details
Of a very divine design

And it's no mistake you're here
Cause I'm not one to believe
In coincidences
Yeah, it's no mistake you're here
Cause the artist of the universe
Drew you right here in this place
And I assure you
He never makes mistakes

Hey complainer
Well, I'm no different
Plain angry in bitter situations
But no matter how confused and shaken
We are sealed in sovereignty
