I want you and you want me
And there's nothing stopping you
From kissing me
So I'm tearing my heart
Because I want to

Give in to your heart
And don't let him sell you out
Give in to your heart
I won't let you be sold out

I need you, do you still want me?
There's nothing stopping us
From touching each other
Are you tearing your heart
Because, 'cause I already have you

Give in to your heart
I won't let your life be bought over
Give in to your heart
And don't let him sell you out
Him sell you out

Give in, give in, give in to me
