If she's a blond or brunette
Or if she's slim or she's fat
It doesn't matter at all
When I fall, I fall

It's in the way that she walks
And then I smile when she talks
I'm simply losing my head
And I fall

You may see me as a thinker
Always hiding from his own insanity
Like a bucket or a tin can
So confide within my personality

i met sally at a bus stop
We fell in love
And we got married inside my head

If she's a blond or brunette
Or if she's slim or she's fat
It doesn't matter at all
When I fall, I fall

It's in the way that she walks
And then I smile when she talks
I'm simply losing my head
And I fall, I fall
In love

My family says that I just linger
Never ever show responsibility
To be honest I'm a drinker
Can't hold on to anything too good for me

Julie caught me in a food shop
We were lost and had it off in a "Chevrolet"

If she's a blond or brunette
Or if she's slim or she's fat
It doesn't matter at all
When I fall, I fall

It's in the way that she walks
And then I smile when she talks
I'm simply losing my head
And I fall, I fall

Mary stole my cousin Reno
But I really like the taste of her lips so sweet
It happens every time I meet another girl
Now it's you

If she's a blond or brunette
Or if she's slim or she fat
It doesn't matter at all
When I fall, I fall

It's in the way that she walks
And then I smile when she talks
I'm simply losing my head
And I fall, I fall
In love
In love
In love
