"Stupid Superstar"

I've got a song of my own
It's not that long, it's called "My bone"
It's on a tape, it's not a fake
Easy play, easy make
Intro, verse, chorus bridge
Pretty words, it's not shit
It's a hit, a potential hit
Take a listen to it, just a bit

[Chorus:]

Will I ever be a star
A stupid superstar shining up in the sky?
Will I ever be a star
A stupid superstar shining bright in the sky?

I'm not bad, I must be mad
I'll make some calls, I'm ready to crawl
Look at me, what can you see?
Will I succeed, what will I be?
I am gay but I can fake
I'm not thin, I'll do some gym
Losing weight, being straight
Girls will love me... who will fuck me?

[Chorus x2]

They will play it on the radio
You will play it on your stereo
They will play it on the radio
You will play it on your stereo

[Chorus x2]
