Peacefully
I close my eyes
To get a better view
No need for words now
No need for words
While I never come closer

Whispering
Whispering softly
I try to get close
There's a place
Behind this view
While I never come closer
No I never come closer
To where I wanna be

There's no space
Left for me

But I never come closer
But I never come closer
But I never come closer
But I never come closer
But I never come closer
But I never come closer
