Asleep at the wheel, a red light mistake
Take my word for what it's worth
Life at a stand still not one second passes
And in the asphalt I see a best friend
(Crashing through the window)

Don't move
Save me
Cry out
To God above

And would you save everyone
If you saw them dying?
Watch as they slip through your hands
Bring me back to life, bring them back to life
One step further from all of this

Abstract emotions in dealing with death
The warmth of my breath turns to ice
Beating the concrete your hands
Cut and bruised and in the end
Not a question of why
(Crashing through the window)

Don't move
Save me
Cry out
To God above

And would you save everyone
If you saw them dying?
Watch as they slip through your hands
Bring them back to life, bring them back to life
One step further from all of this

Never forget what I'm bleeding
Gasp for air, now I am apart of this
Leave me suffering
Never break your promises
Never forget and you'll never forget
What I've done

And would you save everyone
If you saw them dying?
Watch as they slip through your hands
Bring them back to life, bring them back to life
One step further from all of this

Don't move
Save me
Cry out
To God above
