Should have seen this coming
You're way too good
For anyone but me

Think about it
Because we know
You do

We start in December
We'll end in November
This time

We start in December
We'll end in November
This time September
Came too fast, too soon

You'll run out of lies
All options have run dry
'Cause you're alone

I hope you suffer
We know
That you know
That we miss

We start in December
We'll end in November
This time

We start in December
We'll end in November
This time September
Came too soon

Oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah

We start in December
We'll end in November
This time September
Came too soon

We start in December
We'll end in November
This time

We start in December
We'll end in November
This time September
Came too soon
Too soon
