

A Change Of Pace "Take Care"

I'm chasing time, looking for a beat
Open your eyes and repeat after me

You try so hard to find a rhythm in your heartbeat
The less you know the more you want
To try to justify the secrets of your lifetime
In the end to come for us

So take care of you and I'll take care of me
We're just lonely hearts looking for melodies
Take care of you and I'll take care of me
We're just lonely hearts looking for melodies

Break to break it down, will I find clarity?
On a hotel floor, when I fall asleep?

You try so hard to find a rhythm in your heartbeat
The less you know the more you want
To try to justify the secrets of your lifetime
The meaning to come for us

So take care of you and I'll take care of me
We're just lonely hearts looking for melodies
Take care of you and I'll take care of me
We're just lonely hearts looking for melodies

I'm looking for a safe way out
'Cause I'm in the habit of breaking young girls' hearts
I've been looking for a safe way out
'Cause I'm in the habit of breaking young girls' hearts
I've been looking for a safe way out
'Cause I'm in the habit of breaking young girls' hearts

You try so hard to find a rhythm in your heartbeat
The less you know the more you want
To try to justify the secrets of your lifetime
In the end to come for us

So take care of you and I'll take care of me
We're just lonely hearts looking for melodies
Take care of you and I'll take care of me
We're just lonely hearts looking for melodies

I've been looking for a safe way out
I'm in the habit of breaking
I've been looking for a safe way out
Open your eyes
