okay lemme give a lesson to you first never ever give up no matter how much it hurts without the work, you could never get desserts life aint easy roll up dem sleeves and hit the dirt cuz everybody likes to keep their hands clean but you could be the one, you dont need a team depend on yourself, thats right say it with me "myself" use your brain to get that one thing on the highshelf cuz whats the point of life if you always gettin help just do it yourself so you know how it felt lifes a gamble so you gotta make the best bet stick with something move forward dont regret take a deep breath if you feelin a lil stressed aint nobody pushing you take it step by step cuz when u on a roll, you're set mic checked aint stoppin no tolls, bout to have your best yet

(chorus)

your life, its a special one so dont give up and leave it undone you gotta live up you got your pride
let it shine ,dont ever let it hide
