Mother!
You're holding my heart, screaming
Motherfucker!
They left me broken, bleeding
Son of!
The man you loved and left for
The son of a bitch!
Who tried to show me death's door

Everything's eliminated
Everything is dedicated
Tied to leave this life I hated
Never get what's over-rated

Love song for the dear departed
Head stone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earth bound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here

As in!
Obituaries rain down
It's all okay!
We're lying naked face down

Wasn't it decapitated
Can you see me fascinated?
You're the only thing I've damaged
What you get to be miss-managed

Love song for the dear departed
Head stone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earth bound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here

Don't bring me daffodils
Bring a bouquet of pills
See some geranium
Cracked to the cranium
Protect me when you can
Respect me when I am
Dying

Love song for the dear departed
Head stone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earth bound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here

Love song for the dear departed
(Don't bring me daffodils, bring a bouquet of pills)
Head stone for the broken hearted
(See some geranium, Cracked to the cranium)
Arms to kill
(Protect me when you can, respect me when I am)
More flowers to steal
(Dying)
Head trip for the mortal earth bound
(Don't bring me daffodils, Bring a bouquet of pills)
One sip of the blood that I found
(See some geranium, Cracked to the cranium)
Lying here
(Protect me when you can, respect me when I am...)
I'm dying here
