Everybody's an enemy, telling me lies and it's killing me
Why they all want to get rid of me? Everybody's my enemy
Several try to disguise the devil in them
Wanting to get into my cerebellum but I'm Ready and willing to tell them that I can't f with them
Exhale so hard it got my chest swelling
Like my dick does when watching naked women
Do sick stuff on my porn collection on television?

Trust nobody
I don't know who to call a friend
They all just pretend to be
Fuck, everybody this is to all of y'all
'Cuz everybody is an enemy

Trust nobody
I don't know who to call a friend
They all just pretend to be
Fuck, everybody this is to all of y'all
'Cuz everybody is an enemy

Watching my own back strapped in chrome, to my homies
Where the tombstones at, where the hoes at?
'Cuz to many didn't act like dikes, hermaphrodites
With benzene, Amen, look at the trash they biting
The life in times is kinda weaker
Like the time and life of the Sandman on Apollo Theater
Imagine that another black with a hook
Who pulls the wack talent off the stage, I'm in raged

Trust nobody
I don't know who to call a friend
They all just pretend to be
Fuck, everybody this is to all of y'all
'Cuz everybody is an enemy

Trust nobody
I don't know who to call a friend

They all just pretend to be
Fuck, everybody this is to all of y'all
'Cuz everybody is an enemy

You fill your lies around me
And you think you won
You feel you can control me
With the things you've done

You think that you can take me
You think that you can play me
You're goin' to start to hate me
I feel that you disgraced me

You think that you can take me
You think that you can play me
You're goin' to start to hate me
I feel that you disgraced me

You think that you can take me
You think that you can play me
You're goin' to start to hate me
I feel that you disgraced me

Trust nobody
I don't know who to call a friend
They all just pretend to be
Fuck, everybody this is to all of y'all
'Cuz everybody is an enemy

Trust nobody
I don't know who to call a friend
They all just pretend to be
Fuck, everybody this is to all of y'all
'Cuz everybody is an enemy
