What the fuck?!

I'm so numb, therefore I can't relate
I'm so dumb, there is nothing to hate
Really is it me, or is it fate?
Give me peace or release for fuck sake

Give them something to say
Something super blind, never plain
All I hear is disgrace
Erase them all and reclaim my place

In the past I was known as a freak
Had no friends...Picked on 'cause I was weak
Save my ass...I've got into this band
Never thought the band would pick on the man

Give them something to say
Something super blind, never plain
All I hear is disgrace
Erase them all and reclaim my place
...Reclaim my place
...Reclaim my place
...Reclaim my place
Say it to my face

So I look around at all these stupid little faces
Something I can never slap, but I embrace
You'll never ever see, you'll never ever be
You want to fuck around? Then come fuck with me

You think you can't relate?
You'll never ever find
You think you feel my hate?
Look at me and you will find
My fate you always raped
I will always be the sound
You want to fuck with me?
Come on, fucking play!

Now!
You can feel it might be stoned!
