What's your lie?

Warm glance and fake smile
Eyes meet, your mind runs wild
This game you play, I like in a way

You expect to grab a child
You think I'm innocent, not wild
Take me, let's see how much I'm tamed

Never thought a little boy like me could
Ever know how to embrace your body
While, in turn, embrace your soul
I'll show you feelings

Pleasure, pain is in my control
Left your body laying there
Red flesh, dripping of fear

Warm glance and fake smile
Hatred rips through your insides
This game you play
Intimidation each day

You think it's all a lie
They wanted to destroy our lives
Anger twisted your life into pain

I wish I could take control
I wish I could let go
I wish I could break this mold
Inside I'm so fucking cold

I'm cumming
I'm cumming
I'm cumming on you

Warm glance and fake smile
Eyes meet, your mind runs wild
This game we play
I like in a way

You expect to grab a child
You think I'm innocent, not wild
Take me, let's see how much I'm tamed

Never thought a little boy like me could
Ever know how to embrace your body
While, in turn, embrace your soul
So I'll show you feelings

Pleasure, pain is in my control
Left your body laying there
Red flesh, dripping of fear

I wish I could lose control
I wish I could let go, I wish I could let go
I wish I could break this mold inside I'm so fucking cold
Wipe this aside so the truth unfolds

I am done that was so fun
This was real, how did it feel
It feel when

I was cumming
I was cumming
I was cumming on you

I'm cumming
I'm cumming
I'm cumming on you
